Strategic management aligned to the SDGs

Good Health & Well-Being

- By 2030, reduce premature mortality from non transmissible diseases by one third through prevention and treatment, and promote mental health and well-being.
- Achieve universal health coverage, in particular protection against financial risks, access to quality essential health services and access to safe, effective, affordable and quality medicines and vaccines for all.
- Strengthen the capacity of all countries, particularly developing countries, in early warning, risk reduction and management of national and global health risks

Quality Education

— By 2030, ensure equal access for all men and women to quality technical, vocational and higher education, including university education.

— By 2030, increase the number of young people and adults who have technical and professional skills, to access employment, decent work and entrepreneurship.

— By 2030, eliminate gender disparities in education and ensure equal access to all levels of education and professional training for vulnerable people

— By 2030, ensure that all learners acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to promote sustainable development

Gender Equality

— End all types of discrimination against all women and girls around the world

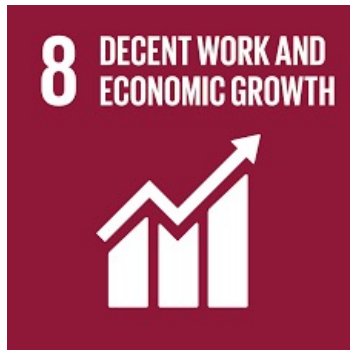

— Eliminate all types of violence against all women and girls in the public and private spheres, including trafficking and sexual and other exploitation.

— Guarantee the full and effective participation of women and equal leadership opportunities at all levels of decision-making in political, economic and public life

— Improve the use of information and communication technology, to promote the empowerment of women.

— Pass and strengthen successful policies and applicable laws to promote gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls at all levels

Decent Work and Economic Growth

— Progressively improve, until 2030, the global efficiency of resources in consumption and production and strive to decouple economic growth from environmental degradation

— By 2030, achieve full and productive employment and decent work for all women and men, including youth and people with disabilities, as well as equal pay for work of equal value

— Take measures to eradicate forced labor, put an end to contemporary forms of slavery and human trafficking, and ensure the prohibition and elimination of the worst forms of child labor

— Protect labor rights and promote a safe and secure work environment for all workers

Reduced Inequalities

— Ensure equal opportunities and reduce inequalities in performance, including by eliminating laws, policies and discriminatory practices and promoting legislation, policies and appropriate action in this regard.

Responsible Consumption and Production

- By 2030, achieve the sustainable management and efficient use of natural resources.
- By 2030, significantly reduce waste generation through prevention, reduction, recycling and reuse activities.

Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

- Promote the rule of law at national and international levels and guarantee equal access to justice for all.
- Significantly reduce corruption and bribery in all its forms.
- Promote and apply non-discriminatory laws and policies in favor of sustainable development.
- Guarantee public access to information and protect fundamental freedoms, in accordance with national legislation and international agreements

Partnerships for Goals

— Encourage and promote the establishment of effective alliances in the public, public-private and civil society spheres, taking advantage of the experience and the strategies for obtaining resources from the alliances.

— By 2030, build on existing initiatives to develop indicators to measure progress in sustainable development and complement gross domestic product, and support statistical capacity building in developing countries
